

May the radio or television
be turned off, please?

May the radio of television be turned off, please?

I have Parkinson's disease. This creates difficulties for me in deciding where (on what) to focus my attention.

When the radio or television are turned on, it costs me energy and diminishes me to be able to participate properly in the conversation.

If you turn off the radio, I can stay longer and I like that!

Running out of cards? Download them from www.copiedstudie.nl/cards or reorder the printed cards from detours-parkinsonian-brain.com