

Could you, please, talk one at a time?

Could you, please, talk one at a time?

I have Parkinson's disease. I miss more than 70% of the brain cells that produce dopamine. This slows the pace of my thinking and acting.

Processing information takes longer and I cannot adjust quickly enough. If people all speak at once, I totally lose track.

If you talk one at the time I can participate better.

Running out of cards? Download them from www.copiedstudie.nl/cards or reorder the printed cards from detours-parkinsonian-brain.com